

StriveX® Ltd Use of Cookies

Our website uses cookies and similar technologies to help the website function, understand how visitors use our site, remember preferences and improve your experience.

A cookie is a small text file that a website stores on your computer, tablet or mobile device when you visit the site. Cookies can allow websites to remember your actions and preferences, such as language or display settings, over a period of time.

We use cookies in accordance with the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 (PECR) and applicable UK data protection legislation.

Consent

Some cookies are strictly necessary for our website to operate and do not require your consent.

Where required by law, we will ask for your consent before placing or accessing non-essential cookies, including analytics and certain functionality or third-party cookies. Consent must be given through a clear and positive action and is not implied simply by continuing to use our website.

You can accept or reject non-essential cookies and change your preferences at any time through our cookie settings. You can also manage cookies through your browser settings, although disabling certain cookies may affect how the website functions.

Types of cookies we use

The cookies used on our website may fall into the following categories:

Essential cookies: Required for core website functionality, security and accessibility.

Performance and analytical cookies: Help us understand how visitors use our website and how we can improve it, for example through analytics services such as Google Analytics.

Functionality cookies: Remember preferences and settings to improve your experience.

Third-party cookies: May be placed by third-party services used on our website, such as embedded videos, forms or other interactive features.

We do not use cookies for behavioural advertising or profiling unless this is specifically explained and consent is obtained where required.

Third-party services

Some services used on our website may place cookies or use similar technologies on your device. These may include analytics providers and services used to provide embedded content or interactive features.

We will provide appropriate information about third-party cookies and obtain consent where required. For more information about how these providers use information collected through cookies, you should also refer to their own privacy and cookie policies.

Managing cookies

You can manage your cookie preferences through our cookie settings or through your web browser. You can also delete cookies that have already been stored on your device. Please note that blocking or deleting certain cookies may affect the functionality of our website.

If you have any questions about our use of cookies, please contact us at info@strivex.co.uk.
